1) B. compelling - 'Despite skepticism' + unanimous approval => proposal is persuasive. 'Compelling' fits; others imply negative or impractical.

2) C. Small consistent habits matter most - This paraphrases the author's claim contrasting daily habits with rare intense effort.

3) B. thorough - 'Meticulous' = very careful and precise; 'thorough' is closest.

4) B. acquit - Inversion 'Only after...' emphasizes timing; reexamined evidence led to clearing the defendant.

5) C - Fix dangling modifier: the doer of 'Having finished...' must be Lena, not the computer.

6) B. The Hidden Power of Green Roofs - Concise and specific to rooftop gardens' benefits.

7) C. is - With 'neither...nor', the verb agrees with the nearer subject 'manager' (singular).

8) B. mysterious - 'Cryptic' means puzzling/obscure.

9) A - If longer hours correlate with higher attendance, plausible inference is that extended hours can increase visits.

10) A. however - Contrast between failure and retry after refinement.

11) B - Error is 'have'; with 'Each', verb must be singular: 'has'. (Singular 'their' is acceptable in modern usage.)

12) C. known - Past perfect in unreal past conditional: 'Had she known ... she would not have ...'.

13) C. were - Subjunctive in contrary-to-fact condition: 'If I were you...'.

14) C - Keep parallel forms: managing / coordinating / writing (all gerunds).

15) C. had been waiting - Past perfect progressive before the train arrived (past).
